

FIRST CASUALTY LIST FROM FRANCE

GERMANS STORM SALIENT HELD BY AMERICANS

Superior Numbers Under Barrage of Fire Take Twelve Prisoners

THREE U. S. BOYS KILLED AND FIVE ARE WOUNDED

War Department Communicates with Relatives of Those First to Fall

CONFERS WITH PERSHING.
Paris, Nov. 5.—Before leaving Paris for Rome, David Lloyd George, the British premier, had a long interview with General Pershing. The American commander in chief, especially from the American army headquarters to meet the British prime minister, Field Marshal Haig, the British commander, also was present at the conference.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 5.—American troops of the overseas expeditionary forces have experienced their first real clashes with the enemy. On Saturday a German raiding party swept over the parapet of a trench occupied by an American company, and after a brief hand to hand encounter returned to their own earthworks with 12 prisoners. General Pershing's first dispatches announced at the war department early today, reported that three Americans were killed, five wounded and 12 captured.

Protected by a heavy barrage fire, the Germans advanced across "no man's land" and stormed the American salient. Cut off from reinforcements by the rain of German shells it is thought they were obliged to meet a force greatly superior in numbers. With the exception of one German captured, nothing is known of the extent of the enemy's losses. The first fragmentary details made no mention of the location of the first, but Berlin dispatches indicate it was in the region of the Rhine-Marne canal, in the section defended by the crown prince's forces.

American troops captured by the Germans in the trench raid on the morning of Nov. 3 probably were trapped in their dugouts and forced to surrender or be blown to pieces with hand grenades without a chance for the lives.

This is the only explanation of army officers today, lacking any details of the fight. General Pershing's brief report merely stated that the German artillery had dropped a heavy barrage fire about a sector of the trench, cutting the men off. No explanation of the casualties and the 12 men taken prisoner was received. The fact that one wounded German was captured, however, indicated the trench had been recaptured by the Americans. A single shell, scoring a direct hit in the trench, might have caused the casualties. That would not explain, however, the surrender of the remaining 12. Under anything short of positive orders the 12 would have been expected to offer desperate resistance to the Germans crawling up in the darkness to jump in the trench, and there probably would have been more than one wounded German left behind when the raiders retired.

A MOTHER'S ONLY SON.
Chicago, Nov. 5.—A tear-choked voice answered the telephone at the residence of William C. Oberst, stepfather of Herchel Godfrey. It was a woman's voice, and there was no need to ask if she had heard: "Yes," she sobbed, "a telegram came from the war department at 4 o'clock this morning. Do you think it is right. I thought it might be he was killed, you know, and they didn't want to say so right off."

The reporter reassured her. He said the list was at hand and her son's name was not among them. "Oh, yes; but I don't know," she began. "It would be better if I knew, because the way those awful Germans treat prisoners. He's my only boy. Do you think..."

"I think," said the inquirer, "that you are a lucky mother. There is always a chance of his being exchanged."

"What do you mean, explain," she said. The inquirer explained and said it was always done in all war. And thus, the first war loss of a Chicagoan reached his mother. Godfrey is 20 years old, was employed by the Western Electric Co., and was one of the first to enlist upon the declaration of war.

SNEER AT AMERICANS.
Berlin, via London, Nov. 5.—Outsiders' brief reference in the general staff report, no details are available here with regard to the capture of the first American troops in France. The official bulletin says they were made prisoners by the region of the Rhine-Marne canal, in the section of the front defended by the German crown prince's army, while the newspapers have played up the capture of the Americans in their headlines, the only comment is made by the Lokai Anzeiger, under the caption "Good Morning Boys!"

Three cheers called for. The newspaper then says: "Three cheers for the Americans."

BIG CAMPAIGN FOR WAR FUNDS STARTS TODAY

Four Million Wanted to Assist in Securing Camp Recreation Centers

WANT PASSION FOR HOME KEPT ALIVE IN SOLDIERS

Washington, Nov. 5.—An intensive nationwide campaign to obtain funds for the war camp community recreation service was begun today and will continue throughout the week. From coast to coast an army of volunteer workers was soliciting subscriptions for $4,000,000 needed to provide wholesome surroundings for enlisted men adjacent to the camp territories.

The movement, under the direction of a national committee, is the result of an effort by the navy department and war department commissaries on training camp activities to establish home ties for soldiers and sailors when they are on temporary leave from their training quarters. On the theory that if the "passion for home" be allowed to become dulled, the enlisted men will cease to make the supreme sacrifice in its defense, an extensive program has been mapped out for the welfare of the men in the nation's service.

In brief, the plan is to establish connections with the different navy and army cantonment camps.

RED TRAIL SOON TO BE CONNECTED THROUGH COUNTY

Field Slough, Long Worst Spot in Highway, Being Filled in—Much Road Work

The Red Trail soon will be a definite, continuous, absolutely passable highway throughout the length of Burleigh county as a result of work which now is being done east of the J. A. Field farm, where a grade is being made across the notorious Field's slough. This bog, long a terror to automobilists, was up to three or four years ago, comparatively dry. For the last three years, however, water has stood in the slough the year round, and the old road grade has been submerged, forcing automobilists to leave the road and make a wide detour. Now the grade is being raised, carrying the trail straight across the slough, and, if present good weather continues, the new highway should be open to traffic by next Saturday.

Commissioners Patterson and Ward inspected the work last week in company with F. Holmboe, who made a number of photographs of the road-building machinery at work. Dirt is removed from a hill on the near side of the fill by an elevator grader, drawn by one of the county's heavy traction engines, and loaded direct, without rehandling, into dump wagons. Another large tractor hauls a string of six to a dozen of these loaded wagons across the fill to the point where it is to be dumped. Every trip made by these heavy engines packs down the grade, and the commissioners anticipate that when the fill is finished it will be ready for immediate use.

Two elevator graders and two engines are working at this point, and were it possible to procure men and teams 25 to 30 wagons could easily be kept busy. The fill is being raised several feet above high water mark and is being made of an ample width. The cutting down of the hill on the east side of the slough also is a marked improvement.

To Gravel Trail.
It is the commission's plan to surface five miles of the Red Trail with gravel each year until the road is completed throughout the county. Although it has been so dry during the last summer that the gravel placed on the McKenzie slough fill has not had a chance to pack properly, it has made a road which is far superior to any of those which have a mere dirt surface. The gravel, combining with the gumbo, sand and clay, will in time give a surface equal to tar-macadam and will protect the grade from ravages of weather. When the trail has been gravelled for its entire length, it will be the best highway in central North Dakota.

Many Sloughs Filled.
A large number of dangerous sloughs in Commissioners Patterson's and Ward's districts have been filled during the last summer with the use of the elevator graders, which enable the road crews to make more rapid progress and do better work. In Commissioners Hedstrom's and Pesonen's districts, in the northern part of the county, many miles of good roads have been built during the year, and much improvement is in progress or about to be undertaken in Commissioner Swanson's district. Burleigh now has 4,000 miles of public highway, of which 400 miles have been

NEW YORK ENDS HOT CAMPAIGN FOR MAYORALTY

Senator La Follette Hailed as Next President by Socialistic Pacifists

ELECTION TOMORROW OF NATIONAL IMPORTANCE

Hearst Press Backing Hyland, Tammany Candidate for Mayor of New York

New York, Nov. 5.—Eleventh hour statements containing charges, counter-charges and protestations of confidence marked the virtual close of New York's four-cornered political campaign. The campaign will be decided Tuesday.

Senator La Follette of Wisconsin was cheered as "the next president," at a mass meeting at which Morris Hillquit, socialist nominee for mayor, was the principal speaker.

"We want peace," was another declaration that brought applause.

Mr. Hillquit and his campaign managers gave out a statement in which they essayed to prove by figures that his election is assured.

Mayor J. P. Mitchell, who is seeking re-election as a fusion candidate, issued another appeal for support on the ground that all the disloyal and seditious elements in the city are arrayed against him.

John F. Hyland, candidate of Tammany Hall, with his only newspaper support coming from the publications owned by William Randolph Hearst, announced his election was assured. He renewed his charges of extravagance and favoritism to moneyed interests against the Mitchell administration.

William M. Lennett, who won the Republican nomination from Mayor Mitchell in the primaries, asserted he was confident of election.

BISMARCK PILOT AT KANSAS CITY EN ROUTE SOUTH

Captain Shephard Green, Taking Gros Ventre to Tennessee, Talks of Upper River

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 5.—A strange boat nosed its way into the municipal wharf at the foot of Main street Sunday night. It bore the name Gros Ventre. That identified it with the northwest. The Gros Ventre had come from Bismarck, N. D., on the way to Clarksville, Tenn., the second boat to make the trip from Bismarck to the mouth of the Missouri river in 20 years, it was said. High winds which had flapped waves over snags and sandbars forced a lay-over here. The boat left Bismarck October 5.

Navigation on the Missouri river north of Kansas City has its difficulties, according to Shephard Green, skipper of the Gros Ventre. But Mr. Green declared that he was not as nervous as painted by enemies of river development. The river at this time is at low stage, so the boat naturally encountered many snags. The Gros Ventre's captain said the Missouri was not being developed as it deserves to be.

The Gros Ventre, which is 125 feet long and 24 feet wide, will be used in Cumberland river traffic. A company of Clarksville merchants purchased the boat to defeat the high cost of transportation by shipping on water wherever possible. While here Mr. Green gathered information on the methods in use by the Kansas City-Missouri River Navigation Co. Captain Green made the suggestion that gasoline propelled boats should be used in upper Missouri traffic. They are more practical, he said, than steamers; cost of operation is less, and the displacement due to cargo of fuel a steamer must carry becomes an item worthy of consideration. The Gros Ventre, equipped with gas engines, draws only 13 inches of water when traveling light. When carrying her capacity of 125 tons, the Gros Ventre draws three feet.

TO ORDER MINERS BACK.
Pittsburgh, Pa., Nov. 5.—Alexander Howat, district president of the Kanawha miners, will order the striking miners back to work this afternoon, according to a telegram received from him today. The message from Mr. Howat was given out from district headquarters here.

ADVANCE $3,000,000.
Washington, Nov. 5.—Coincident with news that a conference now in session in London is considering the Rumanian situation received here today, it became known that the United States has advanced $3,000,000 to Rumania.

German Forces Cross Tagliamento River in Drive; Military Situation in Italy Still Extremely Grave

The black line in above map shows the front as Italian troops had pushed it onto Austrian soil; blocked line marks the Austro-German drive from above Tolmino to the Gulf of Trieste, touching Udine. The dotted line along the Tagliamento River is probably where Italy will make her next determined stand against the German drive. The arrow points to Ploekken pass through which Teutonic troops have poured, threatening the flank of General Cadorna's forces.

Every Man, Woman and Child Vitrally Interested In Success of Italian Line

Washington, D. C., Nov. 5.—The cable dispatches from Italy for the next two weeks will carry the most important news Americans have read since we declared war, in the opinion of authorities in Washington.

It is hard for the peaceful, easy-going American citizen to realize, but it is TRUE: that the manner of life of every man, woman and child in the United States, for years to come, the sacrifices they will be called upon to make, the number even who will be called upon to give up their lives in the nation's service, is at this very minute being determined, 3,000 miles away by Italian troops.

Only two battles of the war—the Marne and the Verdun—equal the present struggle in importance. There are three great turns which this decisive battle may take, each of which is fraught with enormous consequences.

FIRST. Cadorna's army may be crushed, Italy overrun and cut to pieces. SECOND. Cadorna's troops, which are reported to be making an orderly retreat, may be able to stop Mackensen's drive by holding the prepared positions, which are understood to rest on Udine, until the French and British have time to rush big guns, ammunition and, if need be, troops from the western front.

THIRD. Mackensen, in the arduous pursuit, may outrun his lines of communication, just as Von Kluck did in the drive toward Paris, and give Cadorna a chance to administer a defeat comparable in many elements to the battle of the Marne.

In a week or two, we shall know which of these turns the battle will take. Let us, therefore, see just what the big effects of these possible eventualities on the progress of the war and our own plans will be.

We might as well face the blackest chance first. If Mackensen crushes Cadorna, overruns Italy, and destroys her effectiveness as a fighting nation, every American must steel himself for a long war, in which the United States will have to spend hundreds of thousands of lives and billions of dollars before Germany can be crushed.

With Italy crushed, the Austrian submarines operating from the Dalmatian coast, which have for more than a year been held under control by the Italian navy, would again resume their activity in the Mediterranean. The transport line that supports the allied army at Salonika could then be maintained only with the greatest difficulty.

To maintain this transport line and protect the ships carrying grain and cotton from Egypt and the east, Britain would be forced to increase greatly her force of destroyers and patrols in the Mediterranean, and by so much weaken her Atlantic patrol, with grave menace to transatlantic shipping.

With Italy crushed, or driven into the plains of the peninsula, Germany would be free to transfer huge numbers of effective troops to the Russian and Rumanian fronts, and push her conquests there to the point where she would cease to be menaced from that direction, leaving Britain, France, and the United States to be met with augmented forces on the strongly entrenched western front.

If Cadorna, however, can stop the Germans on the Udine line, or any similar series of prepared intrenchments, until the allies can bring strong reinforcements, it may be possible to inflict such heavy losses on the massed Austro-German troops that it will be a victory gained at a cost as dear as the early advances at Verdun.

If, finally, Cadorna, in some way, which cannot now be foreseen any more than the turn at the Marne could be, should turn his defeat into victory and inflict severe losses on the Mackensen forces, the effect in Germany would be tremendous.

The enemy put down a heavy barrage fire, cutting off the salient from the rest of the line. Our losses were three killed, five wounded and 12 captured or missing. The enemy losses are not known. One wounded German was taken prisoner."

FIRE SCARE AT STEELE

Steele, N. D., Nov. 5.—The pastor of the Presbyterian church in this city reported a church long enough to investigate flames which could be seen through the gaps of glass in one of the windows. The congregation fled out and the fire was speedily extinguished before any damage was done. Lignite ashes and live coals had blown from an a-ban into a piece of baggage used to lift the bottom of the window sash. The Lurian had caught fire during the morning service and had the church been empty at the time would probably have destroyed the building.

The congregation fled back and the minister resumed his sermon.

CADORNA STILL HOLDS HIS LINE CONFERENCE ON

Premiers and War Ministers Gather at Rome to Discuss Next Move

MASTERY OF FIELDS IS OCCUPYING TROOPS

Naval Bulletin Indicates that Adriatic will be Scene of Action Soon

By Associated Press.
Italy's situation appears increasingly grave today, with the announcement from Rome that the Tagliamento, west of which General Cadorna has established his new line, had been crossed by the Austro-German invaders.

The crossing of the river apparently has not been in sufficient force to compel General Cadorna to abandon the Tagliamento line.

That this process already is under way is indicated by the fact that Rome tells of increasing Austro-German pressure against the Italian left wing, where the crossing was effected.

The spot selected by the enemy for the successful attempt—Piancane—about 40 miles from the mouth of the river, and about 17 miles west of Udine—was at a point where the marshy ground encountered farther to the south begins to disappear, the banks rising abruptly on the river narrowing down.

If General Cadorna decides to abandon the Tagliamento line, at which it is by no means certain that he intended to fight more than a delaying action, his next natural stand for the defense of Venice, will be at the Lovina, 10 to 15 miles farther west, or finally at the Piave, some 10 miles farther in that direction.

Struggling for Mastery.
Meanwhile as the opposing armies are struggling for the temporary mastery of the field, the entente leaders, including the British and French premiers and military advisers, are in council in Rome to deal with the situation, which admittedly is recognized as grave, coupled as the powerful attack from the east is, with the threat of a flanking movement by the Austro-German forces southward in the Trentino, west of the present battle front.

An Italian naval bulletin, referring to intense naval activity in the Gulf of Trieste, indicates that the Adriatic may be the scene of intense developments.

In Flanders only minor operations are reported, these being confined to artillery activity and small raids into German territory.

MAY MEAN PEACE OFFER.
Copenhagen, Nov. 5.—It is generally believed in diplomatic circles here that the visit to Berlin today of Count Czernin, the Austro-Hungarian foreign minister, may be preliminary to a new peace offer by the central powers.

NEW POLISH CONSTITUTION IS APPROVED

Berlin, Nov. 5.—The constitution of the new Polish state is a document containing nine paragraphs and 151 articles. Prof. Cybichowski of Warsaw, who was commissioned to make the draft, which was approved by a former state council, states that the charter contains the following: "Poland to be an independent constitutional state."

In view of the fact that the larger percentage of the population is of the Roman Catholic church it is ruled that the ruling house be of the same faith. Catholicism is prescribed as being the official religion to be recognized in connection with state functions and official ceremonies. Beyond that full freedom of religious belief is vouchsafed.

The state is to be a hereditary monarchy, the diet to elect a ruler and control the dynasty's affairs and succession.

Upon the advice of prominent men in the military and naval circles of the city the women were advised to confine their organization and to do so in various ways which will assist the boys at the front. No organization in the city has done more for the boys in black than the auxiliary.

SALUTE! HERE'S AMERICAN GIRLS' BATTALION OF DEATH

To serve wherever they may, to fight in the trenches if need be, this "Battalion of Death," organized by patriotic Lowell, Mass., girls on the model of the regiment of fighting Russian women, is constantly growing in numbers. They are banded together not for show but for service, and have the backing of important military leaders. The girl who marries forfeits her membership.

The KITCHEN CABINET

Men and women show their character in nothing more clearly than by what they think laughable.

The things that are really for thee, gravitate to thee.

SEASONABLE GOOD THINGS.

A general formula for preparing ices or frozen dishes for a company may be found useful. The following will prepare five gallons:

Three gallons of water, ten pounds of sugar, a pint of lemon juice, three ounces of gelatin and three beaten egg whites.

For cherry sherbet add three pints of pitted cherries to the general formula.

Lemon or orange sherbet: Substitute for the pint of lemon juice a quart, or reverse the proportion if orange sherbet is desired.

Milk sherbets are made by substituting whole or skim milk for the water called for in the general formula.

Grate the rind from a few of the lemons and oranges and mix with the sugar for flavor. Strain the juice to remove all pulp.

Bermuda Pudding.—Beat a third of a cupful of butter with a half cupful of sugar, then add two eggs, well beaten, a cupful of flour sifted with a teaspoonful of baking powder and a little salt and a tablespoonful of orange marmalade or raspberry jam. Pour into a buttered mold, cover with buttered paper and steam gently for two hours. Serve hot with a sweet sauce.

German Apple Pudding.—Beat an egg until light, add a cupful of milk, two cupfuls of flour sifted with two teaspoonfuls of baking powder, a little salt and a tablespoonful of melted butter, stir well and pour into a well-buttered pan. Press quartered apples in rows into the mixture, sprinkle with a teaspoonful of cinnamon mixed with half a cupful of brown sugar and bake until the apples are done. Serve hot with cream or cold with coffee or tea.

Cauliflower Soup.—Wash and trim one cauliflower and cook with one onion in boiling salted water until tender. Drain and save the water. Rub the cauliflower through a sieve, add two tablespoonfuls of crushed tapioca and a tablespoonful of flour. Simmer half an hour. Add three cupfuls of hot milk, butter, salt and pepper to taste. Add a half cupful of hot cream and serve. One beaten egg may take the place of the cream.

MAKE GOOD IN THE ARMY

Men Prominent in College Athletics Rise Rapidly in the Service.

Boulder, Colo.—University of Colorado athletes will soon find good use for the training they received in school sports here. Word has been received of the arrival "somewhere in France" of two former football stars of the state university, and of two others who were prominent in athletics here.

Elbridge Gerry Chapman, captain of last year's varsity eleven, went to the Fort Riley officers' reserve camp early in the summer and is now a captain in the regular army.

Eddie Evans, who was elected captain of this year's football squad, but who retired from school to seek fame in Uncle Sam's fighting forces, has been made a second lieutenant and letters received here disclose the fact that he is "over there" somewhere.

Horne P. Wells and Chauncey Bennett, both prominent in athletics at Boulder, have been accepted in the aviation corps and are believed to be "across the pond."

"THE BARRIER" AT THE GRAND THEATER THURSDAY

Those who have read Rex Beach's famous novel, "The Barrier," will be interested to learn that a motion picture version will come to the Grand theater commencing Thursday. All the picture critics declare that "The Barrier" marks a new era in motion picture production.

Everything about "The Barrier" is powerful—characters, plot and incidents. It is "blazing" spelled with capital letters. The cast is especially strong, including Mitchell Lewis, Maubel Jullene Scott, Victor Sutherland, Frank Simpson, Ed Roseman and ried on at too speed and it has all the wild beauty of a setting that could be described as an imaginative reader of the book.

BIG DRIVE LAUNCHED FOR SALE OF R. C. SEALS

A big drive was started throughout the state today for the sale of the Red Cross Christmas seals. Packets of seals will be sent all over the state by the secretary of the Anti-Tuberculosis Association, Dr. Fannie Dunn Quinn of this city. Extra inducements are offered this year by the association for the sale of the seals, so as to increase the sales to meet the demand for more money to carry on the work in this state. For the town selling $50 worth the services of a trained nurse will be extended free by the association and for the county selling $100 worth the services of a nurse will be given for the period of a month.

The state has 5,000 cases of tuberculosis, the great majority of them being children under 15 years old. The recent physical examination of young men of the draft age revealed the prevalence of this disease among them. The association not only is planning to cope with the present conditions, but is getting ready to take care of the new cases which will develop through the exposure of the war service in France. America has the experience of the other nations now engaged in the war and is getting ready to handle its share of the victims of the white plague.

Mrs. J. E. Stevens, field worker of the association, and chairman of the health and children's welfare of the women's national defense council of North Dakota, was in the city last week and spoke before the teachers here attending the N. D. E. A. meeting, in the interest of her work.

NORTH DAKOTA AGGIES BUMPED STATE VARSITY

Coach Davis' Men Prove too Knowing for Andy Gill's Gridiron Warriors

Fargo, N. D., Nov. 5.—Coach Paul Jones' Aggie football machine was too strong for the University of North Dakota team on Dacotah field, and defeated Andy Gill's men by the score of 20 to 7, in the annual football classic of the state.

Among things that counted in the victory of the Aggie players was their superior teamwork, their better open style play, their greater speed on the end runs and their longer punts. Both teams used the punt and forward pass frequently.

Every one of the four touchdowns scored in the game were made on the forward pass. Elliott scored the first touchdown in the first quarter, when he caught a pass thrown by Nemzek, and ran it over, the ball having been put in play on the 17 yard line. Anderson scored the second in the next quarter when he intercepted an attempted forward pass by the university captain, Helmkey, and ran 53 yards for the touchdown. Hayes made the third in the third quarter, when he caught a long heave by Nemzek, the ball having been put into play on the university 31 yard line.

GOPHERS ELIMINATED FROM BIG TEN FIELD BY BADGER VICTORY

Brilliant Execution of Forward Pass Wins for Wisconsin from Minnesota

Madison, Wis., Nov. 5.—Minnesota was eliminated from the Big Ten championship race when Wisconsin scored a 10 to 7 victory in the biggest upset of the season. The Badgers displayed a surprising reversal of form over the showing they made against Illinois early in the season when they were defeated 7 to 0. Brilliant execution of forward passes enabled Wisconsin to win. Eber Simpson of Goshosh, a 165-pound quarterback, hurled 25 passes and 9 of them netted gains totalling 138 yards. In addition Simpson kicked a field goal. Minnesota had miserable success with the aerial attack, making only one gain of 10 yards. Wisconsin scored 63 yards with passes in the first two periods and 70 in the third.

LISBON, 19; LIDGERWOOD, 0. Wurtenburger, State All-Star Half, out of Game Saturday

Lidgerwood, N. D., Nov. 5.—Lisbon defeated Lidgerwood today 19 to 0 in a game which was clearly Lisbon's from the time the pigskin was put into action. Harris, Trumbull and Koeneke made the touchdowns. Wurtenburger, who was all-state halfback last year, was not in good form today and the Lidgerwood team suffered accordingly.

WILLISTON BEATS FARGO Runs all Around Gate City High in Fastest Game of Season

Williston, N. D., Nov. 5.—Williston high school today came on the athletic map of North Dakota by defeating Fargo high in one of the classic football games of the season by a score of 45 to 0.

Williston opened the scoring after about 10 minutes of play, when they had worked the ball within a few yards of the Fargo goal and Scott made a forward pass, which was received perfectly by Bruenger behind the goal. Gordon, quarter, Scott, Jaynes and Kulas followed with touchdowns that were put over on straight football. Consistent gains were the rule and there were few long runs. The Fargo players, although greatly outweighed, were game to the core and took much punishment from the local team.

Narcopolis.
Ever wonder what the matter was, after eating, when that drowsy feeling overcame you? When you felt you'd give almost everything for a little sleep? Joe Kelsey of the city health division has discovered what that is. It is narcopolis. And narcopolis results from "motor deficiency" of the stomach.—Toledo News-Bee.

HARRY GREB BLAZES METEORIC WAY THROUGH MIDDLEWEIGHT DIVISION BY WINNING 15 OF 41 FIGHTS BY KNOCKOUTS

Harry Greb and Two of His Training Starts.

Second only to the meteoric career of Les Darcy in the pugilistic world in the last few years is that of Harry Greb, the sensational Pittsburgh lad who has been blazing a trail of uninterrupted victories in the middleweight division and has the best opportunity of any in that division to win for himself the crown left by the death of the Australian. The career of Greb has been as brief as it has been sensational. Four years ago he was laying tin roots in Pittsburgh for $12 a week, figuring he was making good money. Today his income approximates $32,000 a year by laying tin ears on other fellows' skulls. In the meantime there isn't a good middleweight in the country whom he hasn't beaten or held even and this goes for Mike and Tommy Gibbons, Jack Dillon, Billy Miske, George Chip, Battling Levin, Gus Christie, Jeff Smith, K. O. Brown, Al McCoy and others. In a year he has made himself one of the most popular boxers in the country, which is attested to by the fact that he always has four or five bouts booked ahead and every fight club of importance in the country is clamoring for his services. In the last 11 months he has fought 41 bouts, netting himself more than $30,000, and sometimes fights as many as three and four times a week. Until a year ago he boxed for points. Then he developed a punch and in his last 41 bouts has won 15 knockouts. His record for knockouts in September was perfect, Jack London, Johnny Howard, K. O. Brown and Battling Kopin, the only men he met during the month, taking the count. Greb has been knocked out once, Joe Chip turning the trick in Greb's thirteenth fight. Just now Greb is on the trail of Al McCoy's so-called middleweight title. Greb offers to post $1,000 or his end of the gate for a 15 or 20 round bout with the New Yorker. McCoy recently barely managed to last out 19 rounds with Greb and has shown no sign of accepting the offer. Greb's early path was a thorny one. His first bouts were at amateur shows given by the Pittsburgh Athletic club. Greb's father threatened to kick him if he went near a boxing bout, but he went near a boxing bout, but he went near a boxing bout, but he went near a boxing bout. "My father is German," Greb says succinctly. "But my mother is Irish."

INFORMAL.
In days of old when Yale was bold And Harvard piled up scores abnormal They didn't squirm at every turn And call their puny teams informal.

When they were beat, they met defeat With measures calm and calculating "Next year," they said, "We'll knock 'em dead." "Our exploits will be worth relating."

But Yale today, and Harvard— They play the game with rule and reason. But when they're licked, their rep ain't nicked. "Informal teams" don't count this season.

FABLE.
Once there was a duck hunter who went out and shot one duck. Then he came back and told his friends he had shot one duck. The crowd went to sleep at a raslin' match the other night. He had been up with a sick friend the night before. Rumor has it Fielder Jones is to retire. Case of taking the grouch out of baseball. YOU KNOW HARRY. They've named a race horse after Harry. Someone ought to drop a nickel on the track to see if he will go back after it. Bill Dinnene was accidentally shot while hunting. Bet there was a ball-player in that woods. these army camps reminds one of browsing back through football guides of past years looking up former all-American teams

GIL DOBIE MAY SET NEW MARK FOR SCORING

Although Gilmour Dobie this year lost his first football game in 12 years when the Navy went down to defeat before the West Virginia, he has an excellent record with his squad of middles who have piled up 212 points in three games. While this is not so phenomenal as the achievement of Georgia Tech which overwhelmed a team 222 to 9 last year it is indeed creditable, considering that the points were made against such teams as Haverford, Carle and Maryland state, none of which had been considered set ups at the start of the season. It is not likely any college of importance will equal the Navy's record if Dobie can keep his team going at its present speed.

MORIARITY MAKES GOOD AS UMPIRE FIRST YEAR OUT

When George Moriarity was appointed umpire in the American League last spring there were many critics and ballplayers who feared he would not do.

Not that George hadn't been a smart ballplayer or didn't know the game—nor that he wasn't a good fellow—but Moriarity was regarded as a man with a hot temper which he might not be able to control.

But as the season rounded out and Moriarity was grinding out game after game with some of the older heads in the league these doubts were cancelled. Moriarity did have a little trouble at the start of the season. He showed signs of becoming excited when the players kicked on decisions but he later overcame this and as the season closed he ranked well up with veterans in the game.

Surprised Justice.
In a New England town a local celebrity was brought up before the justice for stealing chickens. The justice was noted for never telling the truth when he could help it, and consequently there was general surprise when he pleaded guilty. It evidently staggered the justice. He rubbed his glasses and then scratched his head. "I guess—I'm afraid—well, Hiram," said he, after a thoughtful pause, "I guess I'll have to have more evidence before I sentence you."—Case and Comment.

WILBUR HAS AN AWFUL TEMPER

FEIGNS-BLINDNESS, IS FREE
French Professor in Military Prison Deceives Germans by Remarkable Will Power.

Paris.—A professor of the Sorbonne, the great French university, recently obtained his release from a German military prison by a remarkable exercise of will power. He fell into the hands of the Germans in 1915. Deciding at once to get free in some way, he feigned blindness.

From that time it was impossible for the German military doctors or eye specialists to catch him off his guard. They subjected him to the severest known tests. He was tortured by scientific ways of verifying sightlessness, but never once departed from a fixed blank gaze.

He was finally declared totally blind, and included in a recent exchange of permanently disabled prisoners.

PLAN HOTEL CLEARING HOUSE
New York Has Scheme to Save Visitors Inconvenience in Locating Accommodations.

New York.—A hotel clearing-house, with the object of locating about delay suitable rooms for visitors when the hotels are filled, will be inaugurated, under the auspices of the Hotel association of New York city. The congested condition of hotels here at certain times during the year, as during the present world's baseball series, where visitors who failed to make reservations were unable to find accommodations without considerable trouble, led to the decision to organize the clearing-house. Under the new arrangement the hotel keepers believe that the troubles of the business sojourner in New York are at an end.

"BROKE" SOLDIER SAVES LIFE
Lack of Car Fare Brings Him to Rescue of Man Hurt by Train.

Minneapolis.—If Frank Brickley, private with the First Minnesota hospital corps, had had five cents Emil Drefahl, 131 Bunker street, St. Paul, would probably be dead.

Drefahl was struck by a Chicago Great Western train at Wyoming street and the railway tracks. His left arm was mangled four inches from the shoulder.

Shortly after the accident, Private Brickley, who was walking to barracks from South St. Paul, because he did not have car fare, met Drefahl, bloody and staggering, at Lucy and Concord streets.

He applied a tourniquet to the arm above the injury and stopped the flow of blood, probably saving the man's life.

It's a whole nother for us. Nor bark: it means intensely and it means good. To find its meaning is my meat and drink. —Browning.

OUT OF DOORS DISHES.

For the nature lover there is no pleasure equal to a meal prepared and eaten out of doors. If one has the habit, an equipment is a great convenience, getting just the lightest, most essential and most compactly packed. Potatoes and corn may be roasted in the woods and they never taste better. If one can wait until they are cooked. The potatoes should be buried in hot ashes fully half an hour before anything else is started. If one does not care to bother to cook, or will forego that pleasure almost everything from hot coffee to ice cream may be carried now in the bottles and receptacles made to conserve the temperature.

Paper plates and cups will do away with worry in carriages, and work in caring for them, as they may be burned before camp is broken, and much time is saved for more profitable amusement.

A heavy square of sheet iron is a most useful camp utensil. It may be used on which to set the various dishes while cooking over the coals or may be used as a toaster, broiler of steaks or as a griddle for cakes. In fact, its repertoire has not yet been exhausted.

Long sharp sticks will be needed to roast frankfurters, or for boiling bannocks as every member of the camp has some special duty to perform the preparation for the meal is shared. To be a good camper, one must not be afraid of work and the normal person finds something of the primitive man in himself when he gets into the woods, conventionality is forgotten, and the camper has the excitement and fun of making fire and preparing a meal like a true savage.

PROPHET TELLS OF WAR'S END

German Monk in 1701 Fixed
Three Years and Five Months of Strife.

AMERICAN ENTRY FORETOLD

Document Discovered in Old Monastery in Mecklenburg Describes "Wagons Without Horses" and
"Fiery Dragons of the Air."

Copenhagen.—In the razing of the old monastery of the Holy Ghost in Wismar, Mecklenburg, an old Bible was found which contained a remarkable prophecy regarding the present world war. It was written in 1701 by one of the monks on parchment that is now yellow and seared with age. It is now on exhibition in a glass case in the city hall of Wismar. So much publicity has been given to the prophecy in the papers of Germany that thousands have flocked to Wismar to see it.

The prophecy not only gives the cause of the war, but also indicates the countries engaged. Up to the present it has been amazingly accurate. It does not exactly state that Germany will be victorious, but indicates how long the war will last, when the decisive battle will be fought, and where and when peace will come, and adds that Germany will continue to exist as a power for many years. A translation of the writing on the parchment is as follows:

"When Malignity and Hatred Rule"

"Lord, have mercy on thy people despite the fact that they are turning more and more away from thee; that they are destroying thy monasteries and cloisters and forgetting thee. A time will come in Europe when these people will feel the weight of thy hand, when malignity and hatred will rule. It will be at a time when the papal seat will be vacant, and the conflagration will come as the result of the murder of a prince. Seven nations will rise against the eagle with one head and the eagle with two heads. The birds will defend themselves furiously and viciously with their talons, and their wings will protect their peoples. A prince from their very midst, a sovereign who mounts his horse from the wrong side, will be encompassed by a wall of enemies. His slogan will be 'Onward with God.' The Almighty God will lead him from victory to victory and many will meet their death.

"There will be wagons without horses, and fiery dragons will fly through the air dropping fire and sulphur and destroying cities and villages. The people will turn to God. The terrible war will last three years and five months. The time will come when food can neither be sold nor bought, and bread will be carefully distributed. The seas will be tinged with blood and men will lie in wait under the waves for their prey."

America's Entry Foretold.

Here follows a reference to America, which was in those times often referred to as the "country of the seven stars."

"The people of the Seven Stars will attack the ring of steel and suddenly fall upon the bearded nation in the rear and rend it in twain. The whole of the lower Rhine will tremble, but nevertheless will endure to the end.

"The land to the west will be one vast desolation, and the land in the ocean will, with its king, be crushed and suffer all the pangs of hunger. The land of the bearded people will still endure for a long time to come, and following the war the world will be united in one great brotherhood.

"The victors will carry a cross, and between four small cities and four steeples of equal height the decisive battle will be fought. Between two linden trees the victor will fall upon his knees before his army, lift his hands to heaven and thank God. Following this all ungodliness will disappear; the indecent dances that prevailed before the war will be seen no more, and God will reign in church, state and family.

"The war will commence when the grain is ripening and will reach its height when the cherries bloom for the third time. Peace will be consummated by the prince in time for the Christmas mass."

All German newspapers have commented on this amazing prophecy. "It is remarkable," says one paper, "how accurately this monk has predicted events as they have thus far occurred."

"We sincerely hope that the longed-for peace will come, as he says, in order that we all may breathe freely again."

Woman Worked as Farmhand. Louisville.—After laboring for more than a year as a farmhand in order to support herself and infant child, Ada McCubbins grew tired of such manual labor and sought a divorce from David McCubbins, a farmer, and her prayer was answered by Judge Wallace.

Jobs for 1,000 Boys. Little Rock, Ark.—"Boy wanted." This sign decorates a hundred or more shop windows. Statisticians have estimated that 1,000 boys are needed to fill jobs in Little Rock. Telegraph companies are employing girls to carry messages.

Always a Possibility. "If I were a young man again," said a mechanic in middle life, "I would go to the farm and become independent, and nothing could hold me." Is every young man sure he won't be saying the same thing some day?—St. Louis Pioneer Press.

Dennis Hannafin Dead; Noted Character Gives Up After Long Battle

DENNIS HANNAFIN

Known Throughout Northwest as Squatter Governor of North Dakota—One of the Real Pioneers of Bismarck and the Territory.

Dennis Hannafin, widely known as North Dakota's squatter governor; one of the first settlers in Bismarck; first attorney of Buffalo county, now Burleigh; a veteran of the Civil war and a member of St. Paul commandery, Legion of Honor, is dead at the Bismarck hospital, where he had been confined since August.

The deceased was born in Ireland on March 17, 1835, and came to America at the age of 10, settling with his mother, widowed by the death of her husband at sea, in Buffalo. At the age of 15 he moved west to Illinois, where in 1862 he enlisted in the 7th Illinois Infantry, with which he won a lieutenantcy by conspicuous bravery. At the end of the war, he found employment on the Union Pacific right of way in Wyoming, later joining the N. P. forces at Northern Pacific junction in 1870. He was among Moorhead's first settlers in 1871, and he reached Bismarck ahead of the railroad in 1872, when he and associates squatted upon the land adjoining the river which the railroad had singled out for its townsite. From that day to the hour of his death, Hannafin remained a loyal citizen of Bismarck. His wife died many years ago, and there survive of the immediate members of the family but one son, who resides in Indiana.

Funeral Wednesday. Funeral services will be held from St. Mary's church at 8:30 Wednesday morning. The remains will lie in state Tuesday afternoon at the Webb undertaking rooms, where they may be viewed by friends.

Business on Honor

We may have a long war to fight before democracy and the brotherhood of man is firmly established in the world or even in America. While the fight is on it must be with honor.

The business world requires and demands honor as never before. There is an occasional spasm of excitement and sometimes a little treachery but upon the whole business is sound at heart and honest.

We will work honestly for the good of the country, the true interests of our stockholders, and for a square deal with our customers.

MELT HEIRLOOMS FOR ARM.

Women From All Over Country Give Up Keepsakes to Send Gifts to Soldiers.

New York.—Old gold and silver contributed by women in all parts of the United States and in carrying on the work of the National Special Aid society, melted, sold for $2,400.

The gold and silver represented many heirlooms from old families, from Maine to California. Many of them, in sending in their contributions, said that the articles contributed were of great sentimental value.

This money will be used to buy necessities and luxuries, too, for American soldiers and military camps urgently needed. The society received a request from one of these camps for 300 sweaters, 300 pairs of socks, 300 pairs of gloves, photographs and other camp essentials.

DEDUCTIVE TEST IS FAILURE

Scientific Method Adopted by New York Detectives Admittedly Inconclusive.

New York.—The first real test of the new method evolved by the New York detective bureau for proving crime solely through chemical, scientific and analytical deductions resulted in failure in the court of general sessions. An indictment of Vincenzo De Stefano for ten-year-old Tillie Brown's murder was dismissed when chemists of the central testing laboratories admitted that they had been "too positive" in their statements before the grand jury that they had discovered infinitesimal fragments of the strap used in strangling the child on the blade of a knife found in De Stefano's possession.

Brains Tell in Golf. Brains are the chief asset in any game, or, for that matter, in all of life's activities. Golf links, clubs, balls, are things. Arms, wrists, eyes, body, strength, contain no ideas. They are accessories, which one can depend on to help toward successful performance, only, however, by using just one absolute essential—brains.

GERMAN STORM SALIENT HELD BY AMERICANS

(Never chips they are, it cannot be denied. Scarcely have they touched the soil of putrid Europe when they are already forcing their way into Germany. Before long they will cross the Rhine and also enter our fortresses. That is express train speed and American smartness.

It is our good fortune that we are equipped to receive and entertain numerous guests, and that we shall be able to provide quarters for these gentlemen. However, we cannot promise them doughnuts and jam, and to this extent they will be obliged to recede from their former standards of living. They probably will become reconciled to this, for soldiering is ever a risky business. Above all they will find comfort in the thought that they are rendering their almighty president, Mr. Wilson, valuable services, inasmuch as it is asserted he is anxious to obtain reliable information concerning conditions and sentiments in belligerent countries.

More Are Expected.

"In this way he will obtain firsthand information about things in Germany."

"As Americans are accustomed to travel in luxury and comfort, we assume that these advanced arrivals merely represent courtesies for larger numbers to follow. We are sure the latter will come and be gathered in by us. At home they believe they possess the biggest and most colossal everything, but such establishments as we have here, they have not seen. Look here, my boys, here is the big firm of Hindenburg and company with which you want to compete. Look at its accomplishments and consider if it would not be better to haul down your sign and engage in some other line. Perhaps your boss, Wilson, will reconsider his newest line of business before we grab off more of his young people."

Difficult Language.

An intelligent Frenchman was studying the English language. "When I discovered that if I was tied I was fast, if I spent too freely I was fast, and that not to cut was to fast, I was discouraged. But when I came across the sentence, 'the first one won one guinea prize,' I was tempted to give up trying to learn English."

"This War Will End When We Win" declared War Secretary Baker last week, and almost on the same day, Lloyd George announced that he could "see no road to peace but in victory."

Without ignoring any of the shadows in the outlook, Allied observers are unanimous in their conviction that the Central powers are cracking under the strain. In proof of this they point to the recent brilliantly successful French offensive on the Aisne front, when in one day's fighting General Petain's troops advanced two miles on a six-mile front, capturing 8,000 prisoners and 70 big guns; to the ceaseless methodical advance of the Ypres wedge by Haig's steamroller tactics; to the heavy toll taken of Germany's naval forces by the Russian fleet in the Gulf of Riga battle, when fifteen German war-ships were put out of action; to the capture by the French of four super-Zeppelins in one day; to Germany's heavy withdrawal of troops from the Riga front to make possible an Austrian offensive against Italy; and to the ominous rumors of a growing spirit of mutiny in the German and Austrian fleets.

The leading article in this week's LITERARY DIGEST (November 3d), is a careful summing-up of the news from various quarters and its significance upon the outlook for peace through victory.
